四、閱讀測驗：每題2分、共16分

1.

Siena is an old city in the north of Italy. It began with a few people living on its hills more than 2,900 years ago. Around the year 1100, Siena became an important business center in Italy. In 1472, the first bank of the world showed up in this city. It is still doing business now.

Today Siena is famous for keeping its “old face.” For example, its city walls helped keep the city safe before, and now they are hundreds of years old and look almost the same as before. Also, people can see many old houses at the Piazza del Campo. It is the most important meeting place of the city and does not change much. People still go there to share news, go shopping, or play sports. One more thing to help keep Siena’s old face is that cars cannot enter the city most of the time.

True, Siena is old, but it is beautifully old. People are welcome to visit this beautiful city and walk into the past.

Loveland is a beautiful town. People cannot drive cars or ride motorcycles in it. The town is famous for its blue sky and fresh air. The weather there is nice and warm all the year, so trees and flowers grow well in each season.

I went to Loveland last month and stayed there for six days. Every morning I woke up to the songs of birds. Then I would take a walk or go biking along the country road. Fruit farms were everywhere. Flower shops and coffee houses were also on the way. Every night from my window I could see bright stars in the sky, and I would go to bed with the smell of grass.

The six-day holiday in Loveland gave me lots of surprises. I feel like going there again someday and spend two or three more days there.

Lily: I plan to take a trip to a foreign country this spring vacation. Could you give me some suggestion?

Tina: I just came back from Heartland. I went there on business, but I still had a good time.

Lily: Really?

Tina: Yeah. Heartland is famous for its beautiful beaches. I went to Sunny Beach one day when I stayed there. I saw many people swimming and surfing. There were also some children flying kites happily at the beach.

Lily: Sounds interesting. What did you do at the beach?

Tina: I spent a few hours snorkeling in the sea and saw many different fish. In the late afternoon, I watched the sun go down. It was a wonderful experience. By the way, I know you love coffee. There are also many coffee shops along the beach. I also had a cup of black coffee. It tasted good.

Lily: That's wonderful.

Tina: Most important of all, the people there are very friendly. They are very nice to foreign visitors. So if you need help, don't feel shy to ask them for help.

Lily: Did you spend a lot there?

Tina: Not really. I stayed there for five days and spent less than fifteen thousand dollars.

Lily: That's great. I can't wait to go there!
