Tom : Thank you for being with us this morning. I'm Tom Anderson. We have breaking news. Our reporter Cindy Liu is reporting live at the scene.

Cindy : Thanks, Tom. We are here on Zhongzheng Road, Kaohsiung City. There are always many cars on this road from 7 a.m. to 9 a.m. from Monday to Friday. A woman was hurrying to work, so she traveled at speed on the road. When the police officer saw the woman, he tried to stop her. However, she was driving very fast then, so she just hit the police officer. Then two cooks, Jason and Terry, ran out of their restaurants and took the police officer to the hospital. And the woman is at the police station now. The police are asking her some questions. Back to you, Tom.

Tom : Thank you, Cindy. OK, here's the next news...

Jennifer : Look! There are so many claw machine stores along this street.
 Mike : People in Taiwan like to play a claw machine. Didn't you play one before?
 Jennifer : Yes, but it's difficult to win a prize. The claw always grazes the prizes before it pulls back up. I don't know why so many people still like to play it?
 Mike : That's interesting. It's never easy to win a prize, but claw machines are everywhere.
 Jennifer : That's right. I learned that there are more than 10,000 claw machine stores in Taiwan.
 Mike : Wow, that's a lot.
 Jennifer : True. Many stores closed down because of the weak economy in Taiwan, so most of them turned into claw machine stores.
 Mike : No wonder we can see them everywhere.
 Jennifer : Besides, some people don't make enough money for their entertainment, but they still want to relax after work. So, they will find a cheaper way to have fun.
 Mike : I got it. Every time they play a claw machine, they only spend NT$10.
