Dear Mom,

Thank you for taking care of me and trusting (信任) me. You know I can use time well, so you never tell me what time I should go to bed or when I should finish my homework. You don't think studying is the only thing for students, so you don't ask me to go to cram school (補習班). You know that I like playing basketball very much and exercising is good for health, so you didn't say no when I joined the basketball club. When I practice basketball at school and come home late, you always prepare delicious food for me. I'm lucky to have so wonderful a mother. This card is made by myself. I hope you will like it. Happy birthday.

Love you,

Brian

29. A What kind of card is this? (A) A birthday card. (B) A Thanksgiving card. (C) A Christmas card. (D) A new year card.

30. C What club did Brian join? (A) A studying club. (B) A painting club. (C) A basketball club. (D) A cooking club.

(C) Sometimes Brian can't go home early because he has to practice basketball at school. (D) Brian has to cook by himself when he goes home late.

Do you believe that breaking a mirror (鏡子) will bring seven years of bad luck? Lots of Americans do. They also believe that if a man sings before 7:00 a.m., he will cry at eleven, which means the morning is too early to be happy. Everyone has to try hard every day to get his or her luck. What's more, there's a taboo about shoes. That is to say, don't put shoes on the table, or it would bring very bad luck to the family.

About sending gifts, in America, if someone gives you a knife as a gift, you have to pay one dollar for it, or the gift will bring you bad luck. And if someone gives you a beautiful box of hand-made cookies, don't give the box back with nothing inside. That is also believed to be unlucky and will bring hunger(飢餓) to the family.

One funny thing is that Americans will say "break a leg" to wish someone good luck if he or she is going to perform(表演) in public. It is interesting, isn't it?

32. B What is the reading about? (A) Knives and shoes in America. (B) American superstitions (迷信). (C) Sending gifts in America. (D) American traditions (傳統).
33. C What does taboo mean in the reading? (A) Something that will bring good luck. (B) Something that is interesting to do. (C) Something people should not do. (D) Something people are happy to do.
34. A Which is true about the reading? (A) Americans think putting shoes on the table will bring bad luck to the family. (B) A knife is a good gift for Americans. (C) Americans think saying "break a leg" will not bring people good luck. (D) Americans always sing before 7:00 a.m. to bring good luck.

Dear sir,
I ordered a skirt from you last month. But there are some problems with it. First, the color is not as pink as it is shown in the catalogue. I understand that the picture does not always show the real color, but it should not be that different. Second, I asked for a medium size because it is my size. But your medium is very small, so I have to give it to my younger sister.
I think you should be more serious about your business.
Truly,
Julie Brown

catalogue 目錄

Dear Miss Brown,
Thank you for telling us the problems with your order. We hope we can give you better service. We are sending you another skirt with this letter. It is size large, and its pink color is a lot brighter. We hope you like it.
Our office hours are 9:00 a.m. — 5:00 p.m. Please call us if you have any more questions.
Yours truly,
George Smith

Each country has its national flag, and usually there is a story behind each national (國家的) flag (旗子). The national flag of the United Kingdom(王國) tells an interesting story, too.

The UK has four parts. They are England, Wales, Scotland, and Northern Ireland. They all have their own flags. When Wales became part of England in 1542, the flag of England was the one used — nothing was changed. However, in 1603, when Scotland joined England to become a new country, the two national flags were put together to have a new flag. The last member, Ireland, joined the kingdom in 1801, and it was in that year that the modern flag we see today appeared (出現). In 1992, however, parts of Ireland left the kingdom to become a new country. It also started to use its own flag.

38. B Which is true about how the UK got its national flag? (A)  +  +  =

(B)  +  +  =  (C)  +  +  =

(D)  +  +  =

39. A Which is NOT true? (A) The whole Ireland still belongs to (屬於) the UK. (B) The UK got the modern flag in 1801.

(C) Scotland became part of the UK in 1603. (D) When Wales became part of England in 1542, it still used the flag of England.

40. C Which is said about Ireland? (A) It has used the national flag of the UK since it joined the kingdom. (B) It was the first member to join the United Kingdom. (C) The old Ireland flag can still be seen in today's national flag of the UK. (D) Part of it became a new country, and part of Scotland did, too.
